

A reservation can be made for up to seven (7) nights. No more than two (2) reservations can be booked at a time or in a 30 day period, and reservations cannot be back-to-back.

Check-in is at or after 3:00 p.m. and Check-out is by 1:00 p.m.

How to make a camping reservation

- 1) The reservation system works best in Google Chrome but will also work in Firefox. For those who have Windows 10, it will also work in the Edge browser. This system will not work in Internet Explorer or Safari (the default browser on Apple products). If you have an iPhone, you should download the Google Chrome browser to your phone for using this system.
- 2) Using one of the browsers referenced above, go to <http://nwfwater.com>, click on "Recreation" found in the middle of the Northwest Florida Water Management home page.
- 3) Once you are on the "Recreation" page, scroll below the District Recreation map where you will find two different options for making your reservation.

First Option: If you know where you would like to camp, click on the link "Camping Reservation System" found on the left side of the page below the map.

Second Option: If you are not sure where you want to camp, you can review information under "Recreation by Area," found on the right side of the page below the map. With this option you will need to click on the Water Management Area (WMA) at which you would like to camp. After you have clicked on the WMA, you will be able to view photos and site diagrams for the different individual sites available. Once you click on the individual "Recreation Site" by name and camping is available, you can make your reservation by clicking on "Reserve a Site," found on the left side of the page, as shown below:

- Reserve A Site
- Recreation Activities Matrix
- Site Diagram

- 4) When you click on the link “Camping Reservation System” or “Reserve a Site” from one of the two reservation options referenced above, you will receive a pop-up box (shown below) telling you that you are leaving our website. You will then need to click into the blue box to continue.

- 5) This will take you to a page that lists all the District campsites as shown below or the individual recreation site you have chosen. At the top of the page you will see a “Sign Up” or “Log In” button:

If this is your first-time camping on District lands, you must sign up and then log in before the calendar will work for you. Once you have signed up and created your profile, you will not have to do this again to make other reservations.

You will create your password from this page. Passwords are case sensitive, so you need to remember how you typed it in from this page.

- 6) Once you have signed up, you can log in. If you forget your password, you can reset it by clicking on the “Reset Password” button. When you reset your password, an email will be sent to you with reset instructions.

RESERVATIONS BY CELL PHONE:

If you arrive at a campsite and wish to make a reservation, and you have a smart phone, you would follow the same steps. You still need to use the Google Chrome browser which is a free download to your cell phone. When using your cell phone, you will be scrolling up.

You will put in your search bar: “nwfwater.com” and click on the large bullet that reads “Recreation.” This will take you to the page where you will probably see just the tip end of the map depending on your phone. Scroll up and you will see the “Camping Reservation System” link. Click into this link. Swipe left and you will see the pop-up box telling you that you are leaving our website. Click into the blue box to continue.

This will take you to the page where all the campsites are located. At the top of the screen you will see the “Sign up” and “Log In” box. If you have camped with the District before, you will just need to Log In. If you have never camped with the District you will need to Sign Up first and then Log In. Scroll up on the screen until you find the campsite you wish to camp at and follow the same steps as noted above.

Congratulations! You successfully made your reservation!

We hope you enjoy your stay while camping on the Northwest Florida Water Management District lands!
